EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
2. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in telephone interviews with John Hanley during the week of 12/1216/2005. Examiner notes for the record Mr. Hanley's exceptional professionalism and cooperation in reaching allowance.
3. The application has been amended as follows:

In the claims:

Claim 1, line 17 has been amended to insert --, the spiraling middle portion configured around the vertical portion-- immediately after "the free end" and before the semi-colon.

Claim 5, line 8 has been amended to insert --, the spiraling middle portion configured around the vertical portion-- immediately after "the free end" and before the comma.

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: In addition to the previously cited references, Ross Des 368,671 was considered to read on the independent claims prior to this examiner's amendment, as Fig 1, in the embodiment shown by fragmentary view of Fig 10, has the structural limitations. However, the amendment that the spiraling middle portion is configured around the vertical portion, is not taught, nor would there be any motivation to add this feature, as the Ross earring would be very difficult, if not impossible, to attach with such a feature, and the design with the hanging charm and spiral about the earlobe bottom would be destroyed. While Mason 44971186 does show the spiraling middle portion configured around the vertical section, it seems to this examiner both hindsight and contradictory to have this feature with Ross or Chicckine, as the spiraling middle portion configured around the vertical section would make Ross or Chicckine difficult to insert and remove, and possibly uncomfortable to wear, as the modified Ross or Chicckine earring would appear to pinch the ear.

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
